

UAB “Corporate Services”
Privacy policy

1. Overview

UAB “Corporate Services”, is a company corporate in the Republic of Lithuania with a company number 304630394 and whose registered office Gedimino pr. 20, LT-01103, Vilnius, the Republic of Lithuania. This Global Privacy Policy describes the types of Personal Data we collect through our payments, products and services and via online presence, which include our main website at <http://anypayment.eu> . This policy also describes how we use Personal Data, with whom we share it, your rights and choices, and how you can contact us about our privacy practices.

2. General Provisions

Personal data collected by Corporate Services are processed in accordance with the Law on Legal Protection of Personal Data of the Republic of Lithuania, the General Data Protection Regulation and other legal acts. All employees, agents and employees of agents of Corporate Services who know the secret of personal data must keep it safe even after termination of the employment or contractual relationship.

For the purpose of the processing personal data, Corporate Services may engage data processors and/or, at its sole discretion, hire other persons to perform certain functions on behalf of Corporate Services. In such cases, Corporate Services shall take necessary measures to ensure that such data is processed by the personal data processors in accordance with instructions of Corporate Services and applicable legislation. Corporate Services shall also require the personal data processors to implement appropriate measures for the security of personal data. In such cases, Corporate Services shall ensure that such persons will be subject to the non-disclosure obligation and will not be able to use this information for any other purpose, except to the extent necessary to perform the functions assigned to them.

This Privacy Policy is a Supplement to the General Payment Service Agreement, which comes into force together with the General Payment Service Agreement after you register in the System. This Privacy Policy provides for basic rules for collecting, storing, processing and retention of your personal data and other information relating to you, as well as the scope of processed personal data, the purposes, sources, recipients and other important aspects of data processing in using the services of Corporate Services as a payment services provider. It is therefore recommended to analyze the provisions of this Privacy Policy in detail prior to beginning to use the services of Corporate Services.

Corporate Services respects the individual's right to privacy and makes all reasonable efforts to ensure the security and confidentiality of personal data and other information processed on this website.

You can visit this website not providing any information about yourself, however, if you want to open an account in the Corporate Services <http://anypayment.eu> system and/or use other payment services offered by Corporate Services, Corporate Services will ask you to provide personal data indicated in the system and to carry out established identification procedures.

By visiting this website and/or using information contained therein, and/or the services, you acknowledge and confirm that you have read the Privacy Policy, understand it and agree with it. Corporate Services reserves the right, at its sole discretion to alter the provisions of the present Privacy Policy, therefore, when visiting this website, you have a responsibility to make sure that you are familiar with the latest version of the Privacy Policy that applies to you at the time you are visiting the website.

3. Purposes of the processing. Data providers, terms and recipients

The main purpose for which Corporate Services collects your personal data is to provide the payment services of Corporate Services to clients who send and receive payments. As a payment service provider, Corporate Services is bound by law to establish and verify your identity prior to entering into financial services transactions with you, also, at the time of the provision of the services, to request further information, as well as assess and store this information for the retention period set out by legislation. Taking this into account, you must provide correct and complete information. Further, Corporate Services specifies the data and purpose of which these data are collected.

4. PURPOSE: Client's identification, provision of payment services (account opening, transfers of funds, payment collection and other), or implementation of other legal obligations of the payment service provider.

Personal data is processed for this purpose in compliance with legal requirements related to:

- establishing and verification of the client's identity;
- conclusion and execution of agreements with the client or in order to take steps at the request of the client;
- execution of transfers of funds and transmission of necessary information together with a transfer in accordance with legislation;
- implementation of the "Know Your Client" principles;
- continuous and periodic monitoring;

- risk assessment;
- updating clients' data in order to ensure their accuracy;
- prevention of possible money laundering and terrorist financing, prevention of fraud, detection, investigation and informing of such activity, determination of politically exposed persons or financial sanctions imposed on the client;
- ensuring proper risk and organization management.
- For this purpose, the following personal data may be processed: name, surname, personal identification number, address, date of birth, data from an identity document and a copy of the document, photo, direct video transmission (direct video broadcast) recording, citizenship, email address, phone number, payment account number, IP address, current activity, current public function, other data required by the Law on Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing.
- These personal data are collected and processed on the basis of a legal obligation imposed on the payment service provider, i.e. the Law on Payments of the Republic of Lithuania, the Law on Electronic Money and Electronic Money Institutions of the Republic of Lithuania and the Law on Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing of the Republic of Lithuania, and are required in order to open an account and/or provide a payment service.
- Data retention period: 8 (eight) years after the termination of the business relationship with the client. The retention period may be extended for a period not exceeding 2 (two) years, provided there is a reasoned request from a competent authority. Such data retention period is required by the Law on Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing of the Republic of Lithuania.
- Data providers: the data subject, credit and other financial institutions and their branches, PE Center of Registers, databases for checking the data of personal documents (databases of expired documents and other international databases), authority check registers (registers of notarized authority and other databases), the Register of Incapacitated and Disabled Persons, the Population Register, companies consolidated debtor files (e.g. in Lithuania, UAB "Creditinfo Lietuva" or other), companies maintaining registers of international sanctions, other persons.
- Groups of data recipients: supervisory authorities, credit, financial, payment and/or electronic money institutions, pre-trial investigation institutions, the State Tax Inspectorate, payment service agents of Corporate Services (if the operation is carried out using their services), beneficiaries of transaction funds receiving the information in payment statements together with the funds of the transaction, debt collection and recovery agencies, companies processing consolidated debtor files, lawyers, bailiffs, auditors, other entities having a legitimate interest, other entities under an agreement with Corporate Services, only provided you have given your separate consent for that.

- Data may be provided to third countries (outside of the European Union or the European Economic Area) only in the case your payment transfer is carried out to a third country, or a partner (correspondent) from a third country is engaged in the payment execution.

5. PURPOSE: Debt management.

- Personal data under this purpose is processed in order to manage and collect debts, submit claims, demands, lawsuits and other documents, to provide documents for debt collection.
- For this purpose, the following personal data may be processed: name, surname, personal identification number, address, date of birth, data from an identity document, email address, phone number, payment account number, IP address, payment account statements.
- Data retention period: the due date for the debt is 10 (ten years) from the day the debt is incurred, and after the opening of legal proceedings, the time limit is extended until the debt is repaid and for 24 (twenty four) months after the repayment. The data retention period is based on the limitation periods for proceedings set out by the Civil Code of the Republic of Lithuania.
- Data providers: the data subject, credit, financial, payment and/or electronic money institutions, PE Center of Registers, the Population Register, companies processing consolidated debtor files (e.g. in Lithuania, UAB "Creditinfo Lithuania" or other), other persons.
- Groups of data recipients: companies processing consolidated debtor files, credit, financial, payment and/or electronic money institutions, lawyers, bailiffs, courts, pre-trial investigation institutions, the State Tax Inspectorate, debt collection and recovery agencies, other entities having a legitimate interest.
- The data may be provided to third countries (outside of the European Union or the European Economic Area), when the circumstances of the debt are related to the third country.
- Please note, that if you have a debt to Corporate Services and you are postponing the performance of your obligations for more than 30 (thirty) days, Corporate Services has the right to provide the information on your identity, contact details and credit history, i.e. financial and property liabilities and information on their execution, debts and its payment to companies managing debtors' databases (such as the credit institution UAB "Creditinfo Lithuania" in Lithuania*), as well as to debt collection companies. You can access your credit history by contacting the credit bureau directly.

6. PURPOSE: To support and administrate relations with clients, prevent disputes and collect evidence (recording phone conversations), correspondence of business relations with the client.

- Personal data are processed for this purpose in order to:
- protect interests of the client and/or Corporate Services;
- prevent disputes, provide evidence of business communication with the client (recordings of conversations, correspondence);
- perform quality assessment and ensure the quality of services provided by Corporate Services;
- when it is necessary for the execution of the agreement, in order to take steps at the request of the client or in implementing a legal obligation.
- For this purpose, the following personal data may be processed: name, surname, address, date of birth, email address, phone number, IP address, payment account statements, phone conversation recordings, correspondence with the client.
- Data retention period: 5 (five) years after the termination of the business relationship with the client. The retention period may be extended for a period not exceeding 2 (two) years, provided there is a reasoned request from a competent authority. Such data retention period is required by the Law on Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing of the Republic of Lithuania.
- Data providers: the data subject.
- Data recipients: supervisory authorities, companies processing consolidated debtor files, lawyers, bailiffs, courts, pre-trial investigation institutions, debt collection and recovery agencies, other entities having a legitimate interest, other entities under an agreement with Corporate Services, only provided you have given your separate consent for that.

- The data are not provided to third countries outside of the European Union or the European Economic Area.

7. PURPOSE: Credit rating assessment, credit risk management, and automated decision making.

- The personal data for this purpose are processed to assess the creditworthiness of clients, to manage the credit risk, and to meet the requirements related to operational risk management and capital adequacy, so that Corporate Services can offer to provide funding.
- The following personal data may be processed for this purpose: name, surname, address, date of birth, email address, telephone number, payment account number, IP address, payment account statements, client's balance on the account, financial liabilities, credit and payment history, income, education, workplace, current work position, work experience, available assets, and data on relatives.
- Data retention period: 10 (ten) years after the termination of the business relationship with the client.
- Data Providers: the data subject, credit and other financial institutions and their branches, law enforcement agencies, other registers and state institutions, companies processing consolidated debtor files (e.g. in Lithuania, UAB "Creditinfo Lithuania" or other), natural persons who provide data about spouses, children, and other persons related by kinship or affinity, co-debtors, guarantors, collateral providers, etc., legal entities when the client is a representative, employee, contractor, shareholder, participant, owner, etc. of these legal entities, and partners or other legal entities who Corporate Services employs for service provision.
- Data recipients: credit, financial, payment and/or electronic money institutions or service providers assisting in the assessment of creditworthiness, and companies processing consolidated debtor files.
- The data are not provided to countries outside the European Union or the European Economic Area.
- In order to conclude or offer to enter into a funding agreement with you and to provide you with services, Corporate Services will, in certain cases, apply decision-making based on the automated processing of your personal data. In this case, the system checks your creditworthiness with a set algorithm and assesses whether the service can be provided.

If the automated decision is negative, it may be changed by the client providing more data. Corporate Services takes all the necessary measures to protect your rights, freedoms, and legitimate interests. You have the right to demand human intervention, express your opinion, and challenge an automated decision. You have the right to oppose an automated decision by contacting Corporate Services directly.

8. PURPOSE: Protection of interests of Corporate Services and the client (video surveillance in the premises of Corporate Services).

- Personal data for this purpose are processed in order to ensure the security of Corporate Services and/or the client, to protect the life and health of the client and/or his/her representative and other rights of Corporate Services and the client (video surveillance and recording in the premises of Corporate Services) in a pursuit of the legitimate interest to protect clients, employees and visitors of Corporate Services and their property, as well as the property of Corporate Services.
- For this purpose, the following personal data may be processed: video recordings at the premises managed by Corporate Services.
- Before entering the premises of Corporate Services where video surveillance is conducted, you are informed about the surveillance by special markings.
- Data retention period: 1 (one) year.
- Data providers: the data subject, who visits the premises of Corporate Services, where video surveillance is conducted, and is captured by the surveillance camera.
- Data recipients: courts, pre-trial investigation institutions, lawyers (only in case of attempt to attack).

Informing the client about services. Personal data for this purpose is processed in order to inform the client about the services provided by Corporate Services, their prices, specifics, changes in terms of the agreements concluded with the client, for sending system and other messages relating to the provided Corporate Services services.

- The following personal data may be processed for this purpose: email address, phone number.

- The data subject confirms that they are aware that such messages are necessary for the execution of the General Payment Service Agreement and/or its supplements concluded with the client, and they are not considered to be direct marketing messages.
- Data retention period: 24 (twenty four) months after the termination of the business relationship with the client.
- Data providers: the data subject.
- Data recipients: the data for this purpose are not provided to other persons.

9. Direct marketing. For this purpose, personal data are processed in order to provide the client with offers on the services provided by Corporate Services.

- The following personal data may be processed for this purpose: email address, phone number.
- With this document you confirm, that you are aware of the fact that the aforementioned data may be processed for the purpose of direct marketing, and that you have the right to disagree and to object the use of your personal data for this purpose at any time by informing Corporate Services thereof in writing via email to support@anypayment.eu The message must contain the full name and email address of the personal data subject.
- Data retention period: 24 (twenty four) months after the termination of the business relationship with the client or until the day the client objects the data processing for this purpose.
- Data providers: the data subject.
- Data recipients: The data for this purpose may be transmitted to search or social networking systems (the possibility to object data processing is ensured by the websites of these systems). The data shall not be provided to other persons.
- All of your personal data collected for the aforementioned purposes, except for the name, surname, personal identification number, the number of your ID document and the exact residence place, may be processed for the purpose of statistical analysis. For this purpose, personal data shall be processed in such a way that, by including them in the scope of statistical analysis, it is not possible to identify the data subjects concerned. The collection of your personal data for the purpose of statistical analysis is based on the legitimate interest to analyze, improve and develop the conducted activity. I am aware that I have the right to disagree and object my personal data processing for such purpose at any time and in any form by informing thereof Corporate Services. However, Corporate Services may continue to process the data for statistical purposes if it proves that the data is processed for compelling legitimate reasons beyond the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or for the establishment, exercise or Corporate Services of legal claims.

- Personal data collected for the purposes specified in this Privacy Policy shall not be processed in any way incompatible with these legitimate purposes or legal requirements.
- All the aforementioned personal information constituting personal data shall not be transferred to any third parties without your consent, except when it is required by applicable law or for the purpose of the provision of services (e.g. necessary information is transmitted together with your payment).
- I agree that my data referred to above will be provided and received through a software tool used by Corporate Services or its authorized representative thereof, also by other means and third persons with whom Corporate Services has entered into personal data processing agreements in accordance with laws and regulations.

10. Cookie policy

- Corporate Services may use cookies on this website. Cookies are small files sent to a person's Internet browser and stored on their device. Cookies are transferred to a personal computer upon first visiting the website. Later on, the cookies are used to identify the person. They are designed to improve the functionality and use of the website, also for the purpose of analysis, to streamline the access to the website and information contained therein.
- Like most website managers, Corporate Services monitors traffic of the website and collects information on the number of visitors browsing the website, the domain name of Internet service providers of visitors, etc. Such information is collected automatically when visiting the website. It helps the website manager to understand the way visitors use the website and to improve the services provided by Corporate Services.
- By browsing the website and not changing the settings, the person visiting the website agrees to the use of cookies.

- Most web browsers accept cookies, but the person can change the browser settings so that cookies would not be accepted. However, in this case, some functions may not work.
- All information about the cookies used by the website, their purpose, validity and the data used are given in the table below:

Cookie name	Duration	Purpose
PHPSESSID	While the web session is active	Operation
XSRF-TOKEN	While the web session is active	Operation
my_language	1 year, or until the user changes the language	User interface improvement
sc	1 year	Statistics
user_token	While the web session is active, or until the user logs out	Operation
FilterStore:*	2 weeks	User interface improvement
ref	7 days	Statistics
__cfduid	1 year	Operation

Cookie name	Duration	Purpose
_pk_id.*	1 year	Statistics
_pk_ses.*	While the web session is active	Statistics
_dc_gtm_UA-*	While the web session is active	Statistics
_ga	2 years	Statistics
_gid	24 hours	Statistics

11. The right of access, rectification, erasure of your personal data and to restrict data processing

You have the following rights:

- THE RIGHT OF ACCESS TO DATA: to obtain information as to whether or not Corporate Services processes your personal data, and, where that is the case, access to the personal data processed by Corporate Services and to receive information on what personal data and from which sources are collected, the purposes of the processing, the recipients to whom the personal data have been or may be provided; to obtain from Corporate Services a copy of the personal data undergoing processing in accordance with the applicable law. Upon the receipt of your written request, Corporate Services, within the time limit laid down in the legislation, shall provide the requested data in writing, or specify the reason of refusal. Once in a calendar year, data may be provided free of charge, but in other cases a remuneration may be set at a level not exceeding the cost of the data provision.
- THE RIGHT OF RECTIFICATION: if your data processed by Corporate Services is incorrect, incomplete or inaccurate, you can address Corporate Services in writing for rectification of the incorrect or inaccurate data or to have the incomplete personal data completed by providing a relevant request;

- THE RIGHT TO BE FORGOTTEN: to request the termination of the data processing (erase the data), in the case the data subject withdraws consent on which the processing is based, or the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected, or the personal data have been unlawfully processed, or the personal data have to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation. A written notice of objection to personal data processing shall be submitted to Corporate Services personally, by post or via electronic means of communication. If your objection has legal grounds, Corporate Services, after examining the request, shall terminate any actions of processing of your personal data, with the exception of cases provided for by law. It should be noted that the right to require the immediate erasure of your personal data may be limited or not possible due to the obligation of Corporate Services as a payment service provider to store data about the clients' identification, payment transactions, concluded agreements, etc. for the period laid down in legislation;
- THE RIGHT TO RESTRICTION OF PROCESSING: to request to restrict the processing of personal data, when the accuracy of the personal data is contested by the data subject, for a period enabling the controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data; the processing is unlawful and the data subject opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead; the controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by the data subject for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims. A data subject who has obtained restriction of processing shall be informed by the data controller before the restriction of processing is lifted;
- THE RIGHT TO OBJECT: the right to object to the processing of your personal data for direct marketing purposes;
- to address the supervisory authority with a claim regarding the processing of your personal data, if you believe that the personal data are processed in violation of your rights and legitimate interests stipulated by applicable legislation;
- to contact the data controller and/or the data protection officer for the purpose of exercising your rights;
- other statutory rights.
- You can send your request for access, rectification or objection to data processing via email to support@anypayment.eu The person submitting the request must clearly indicate their full name and add a copy of their personal identification document or sign the request electronically.

Third-party websites

Corporate Services is not responsible for the protection of the Client's privacy on websites of third parties, even if such websites are accessed by the client through links provided on this website. Corporate Services recommends to learn privacy policies of each website which does not belong to Corporate Services.

The use of logos

The client, using the services of Corporate Services for business objectives and professional interests, agrees that its name and/or logo may be used by Corporate Services for direct marketing purposes (e.g. by indicating that the client is using the services provided by Corporate Services).

Ensuring information security

Corporate Services aims to ensure the highest level of security for all information obtained from the Client and public data files. In order to protect this information from unauthorized access, use, copying, accidental or unlawful erasure, alternation, or disclosure, as well as from any other unauthorized form of processing, Corporate Services uses appropriate legal, administrative, technical and physical security measures.

Final provisions

These Privacy policy provisions are subject to the law of the Republic of Lithuania. All of disputes regarding the provisions of the Privacy Policy shall be settled by negotiation and, in case of failure to resolve an issue by negotiation, the dispute shall be taken to courts of the Republic of Lithuania